

WHO SAID IT?

It's Your Money
Verlyn De Wit, CLU, ChFC

Money—there are probably as many philosophies about it as there are ways to make it.

This month, instead of subjecting you to my views on the subject, I'm going to give the pen to history's famous poets, philosophers, philanthropists, pundits, preachers and peddlers of comedy. If you're like me, some of the statements are only good for a chuckle. Others will open deep new insight.

Instructions: Enter the letter that corresponds with the author below.

Hint: One author is not used. Two authors have two quotes.

1. ____ "A bank is a place where they lend you an umbrella in fair weather and ask for it back when it begins to rain."
2. ____ "If money is a curse, my wallet is rated G."
3. ____ "If you can actually count your money, then you are not really a rich man."
4. ____ "A light purse is a heavy curse."
5. ____ "I've got all the money I'll ever need if I die by four o'clock."
6. ____ "The trick is to stop thinking of it as 'your' money."
7. ____ "When wealth is lost, nothing is lost; when health is lost, something is lost; when character is lost, all is lost."
8. ____ "Money is like manure; it's not worth a thing unless it's spread around encouraging young things to grow."
9. ____ "What's the use of happiness? It can't buy you money."
10. ____ "The pride of dying rich raises the loudest laugh in hell."
11. ____ "You can't get rid of poverty by giving people money."
12. ____ "Remember that time is money."

Finally, if you seem to continually bask in the glow of compliments and adulation, consider the words of a Jewish Proverb: “With money in your pocket, you are wise, and you are handsome, and you sing well too.”

It’s Your Money—but don’t let it get out of hand!
